
CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS ix

INTRODUCTION 1

WHO IS THIS BOOK FOR? 1

WHAT IS A THEME? 1

1. ARTICULATING OUR BELIEFS—

USING THEMES MAKES SENSE 3

WHAT DO WE KNOW ABOUT LEARNERS? 3

HOW DO THEMES FACILITATE LEARNING? 4

2. DECIDING ON A THEME—LOOKING AHEAD 6

GETTING STARTED: SEEING THE POSSIBILITIES 7

Using books to begin a theme 7

Using objects brought in by children 9

Using activity centers to kick off a theme 11

Making connections with the world around us 12

Using other people's collections 13

Using school events 15

Using a subject area 16

Using a process 17

Using a big issue 19

3. KEEPING ON COURSE—USING PLANNING CHARTS 20

EVOLUTION OF A THEME 20

4. ASSESSING AND EVALUATING—HOW DO WE KNOW OUR CHILDREN ARE LEARNING? 26

CONNECTING TO THE CURRICULUM 26

OBSERVING AND RECORDING CHILDREN'S LEARNING 27

ALIGNING OUR PRACTICE WITH WHAT WE KNOW

ABOUT LEARNING (ASSESSMENT) 27

ALIGNING OUR PRACTICE WITH WHAT WE KNOW

ABOUT LEARNING (EVALUATION) 29

INVOLVING CHILDREN IN THE EVALUATION PROCESS 30

THEME PORTFOLIOS 33

5. TELLING, SHOWING, AND CELEBRATING WHAT WE KNOW 34

ENDING A THEME: TELLING WHAT WE KNOW 35

Ping-Pong 36

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Old questions, new questions, burning questions | 36 |
| Two, four, maybe more | 37 |
| ENDING A THEME: SHOWING WHAT WE KNOW | 37 |
| Summary spiral | 38 |
| Gallery tour | 39 |
| Fact frieze | 40 |
| ENDING A THEME: CELEBRATING WHAT WE KNOW | 41 |
| Theme fair | 42 |
| Going on tour | 43 |
| Party time | 44 |
| 6. INVITING, INCLUDING, AND INFORMING OTHERS | 45 |
| CONNECTIONS WITH PARENTS: LOOKING AT THE LEARNING | 45 |
| Newsletters | 45 |
| Work samples | 47 |
| Pictures say a thousand words | 47 |
| CONNECTIONS WITH ADMINISTRATORS: SUPPORTING THE LEARNING | 49 |
| 7. RESPONDING—QUESTIONS TEACHERS ASK ABOUT WORKING WITH THEMES | 51 |
| How long should a classroom theme last? | 51 |
| How can you find time to use themes in an already overcrowded day? | 51 |
| Do themes require more planning time and effort for teachers? | 53 |
| Are there times when using a theme isn't appropriate? | 53 |
| The children are certainly having fun, but how do I know that they are really learning? | 54 |
| My kids don't all have the same skills, so how can they all work on the same theme? | 55 |
| What if there are insufficient (or no) materials available for a particular theme? | 55 |
| How much choice do students have in selecting and planning themes? | 57 |
| Do you have any suggestions for theme topics? | 58 |
| CONCLUSION | 60 |
| APPENDIX A: REPRODUCIBLE MASTERS | 61 |
| APPENDIX B: SUGGESTED READING | 77 |