

Table of Contents

Section 1: What is a Professional Learning Conversation?	1
Why use a Protocol?	2
Where do you start with Protocols?	2
Why use Ground Rules?	3
Section 2: Learning Conversations Focused on Common Text Readings	7
2.1 Surfacing Significant Ideas	8
2.2 Challenging Assumptions	9
2.3 Supporting Evidence	11
2.4 A Provocative Question	13
2.5 Text Rendering	15
2.6 The “Final Say” on Quotes	16
2.7 Big Ideas Jigsaw	17
Section 3: Learning Conversations Focused on Personal Goals or Challenges	19
3.1 Refining a Professional Goal	20
3.2 Feedback on Personal Work Towards a Professional Goal	22
3.3 Story Telling about Personal Teaching Challenges	24
3.4 Feedback on a Teaching Conundrum	25
3.5 Learning from Success Stories	26
3.6 Offering a Best Practice	27
3.7 Refining a Unit Plan	28

Section 4: Learning Conversations Focused on Student Work	31
4.1 Do You See What I See?.....	32
4.2 What is the Goal?.....	34
4.3 Refining the Rubric.....	36
4.4 Focused Feedback.....	37
4.5 A Cross Section of Student Work Focused on a Specific Learning Goal.....	38
4.6 Fishbowl Seminar.....	39
4.7 Making a Commitment to Improve the Learning.....	41
Section 5: Learning Conversations Focused on Action Research to Improve Student Learning	43
5.1 Narrowing the Inquiry Focus.....	44
5.2 Refining the Inquiry Question.....	45
5.3 Feedback on Data Collection Strategies.....	47
5.4 Feedback on Data Collection Plan.....	48
5.5 Feedback on Student Data Collected.....	49
5.6 Feedback on What was Learned From the Study.....	50
5.7 Generating Potential Future Research Questions.....	51
Section 6: Other Applications for Protocols	53
Acknowledgements	55
References	57
Appendices	59