

1.0 The Research Study: Background and Rationale	11
1.1 Research Questions	11
1.2 Context	11
1.2.1 Research Context	12
1.3 Key Decisions	12
1.3.1 Why Focus on Assessment?	12
1.3.2 Why Eastern Elementary School?	13
1.3.3 Why a Qualitative Study?	13
1.4 Timeline	14
1.5 Support for MLTI in Eastern Elementary School	14
1.6 Data Collection	14
1.7 Record of Research Proceedings	15
1.7.1 Phase One: Orientation and Overview (September, 2002, to November, 2002)	15
1.7.2 Phase Two: Data Collection (December, 2002, to April, 2003)	17
1.7.3 Phase Three: Focused Exploration Data Collection (May, 2003)	17
1.7.4 Phase Four: Data Analysis and Review (July, 2003, to January, 2004)	18
1.7.5 Phase Five: Verification and Review (February, 2004, to April, 2004)	19
1.8 A Closer Look	20
2.0 The Learning Community: Access for All	25
Introduction	25
2.1 A World of Difference	25
2.1.1 Everyone Can Do It: “Everybody’s got the same stuff.”	26
2.1.2 Learning is Easier and Faster: “It is easier to get because it is quicker.”	28
2.1.3 Keyboarding is Faster: “I can type faster than I can write.”	30
2.1.4 E-mail: “I think it is just faster.”	30
2.1.5 “...Easier to Fix Mistakes...”	31
2.1.6 “Makes Things Faster and Faster...”	32
2.2 The Context for Learning Changes the Way Students Learn	32
2.2.1 Practice Helps Promote Learning: “We’re learning at a faster pace.”	32
2.2.2 Students have more choices: “a belief in differentiated learning.”	32
2.2.3 Student work becomes more complex: “...multiple simultaneous activities.”	33
2.2.4 Equal Access: “We all have the same opportunity.”	33
2.2.5 Access to Information: “You can get newer stuff.”	34
2.2.6 Technical Skills: “...now he knows how to do everything.”	36

2.3 Roles and Relationships Change	38
2.3.1 Students Support One Another: “We started helping each other.”	38
2.3.2 Students Work More Collaboratively: “They rely on each other.”	39
2.3.3 Working Together Differently:
“...increased opportunities for students and teachers to interact.”	40
2.4 Discussion	42
3.0 The Learners: Preparing for Success	45
Introduction	45
3.1 Engaging in Learning “I’m more interested...”	45
3.1.1 Students Describe How They Learn Best	45
3.1.2 All Students Learn: “You are smart enough.”	46
3.1.3 Attendance: “I come to school more than I did before.”	48
3.1.4 Learning is More Fun: “I actually want to come here.”	48
3.1.5 Motivation to Learn: “I can’t wait for school.”	49
3.2 Laptops Help All Students Learn: “It’s helped me improve...”	49
3.3 Independence and Confidence: “I Know What I am Doing.”	51
3.4 Providing Support for Teachers in a One-to-One Computing Environment	53
3.5 Discussion	53
4.0 Feedback: Monitoring for Quality	57
Introduction	57
4.1 Feedback In This Learning Community	57
4.1.1 What Kind of Feedback Helps you Learn? “Specific information.”	57
4.1.2 “We’re not afraid to hear anything anymore.”	57
4.1.3 “They Actually Listen To You.”	58
4.2 Sources of Feedback	58
4.2.1 More Sources of Feedback: “Now I get it from everybody.”	59
4.2.2 Selecting the Source of Feedback:
“She seems pretty good at all that stuff...”	59
4.2.3 Feedback from Peers: “...Other People Looking at Your Work.”	60
4.2.4 Teacher Feedback: “...if I’ve got more work to do, she usually sends it right back...”	60
4.2.5 Students’ Understanding of Letter Grades	64
4.3 Feedback for Learning	65
4.3.1 Applying the Feedback: “...so other people will like it more.”	65

4.3.2	How Much Feedback? “Certain students love to get feedback...”	67
4.3.3	Feedback That Helps Us Learn: “It helps me learn to do my work better.”	67
4.4	Criteria Improves Feedback	67
4.4.1	Criteria Informs Feedback: Good work, “Is on target.”	67
4.4.2	Feedback in Relation to Criteria: “...we already know what the feedback is going to be...”	68
4.4.3	When to Set Criteria: “Didn’t we decide this is the important stuff?”	68
4.4.4	Using samples and models to illustrate criteria: “Watching other people’s presentations.”	69
4.5	Discussion	70
5.0	Proof: Evidence of Learning	75
	Introduction	75
5.1	Student’s Proof of Learning: “The stuff that shows what I know.”	76
5.1.1	Evidence of Learning: “I show what I can and I tell what I can’t.”	77
5.1.2	Project-based learning: “...do better research.”	77
5.1.3	More Research: “They love the hunt...”	78
5.1.4	Web Quest: “I would search the Internet.”	78
5.1.5	More Writing: “I’m getting volumes more.”	79
5.1.6	Showing Proof of Learning: “We did it all by ourselves.”	80
5.1.7	Presenting Evidence of Learning to Others: “...a lot more people would be seeing it.”	80
5.1.8	Organizing Evidence of Learning: “make sure you keep all your work.”	82
5.2	The Teacher’s Proof of Student Learning	83
5.2.1	Observations, Records, Interactions, and Reflections: “A tremendous amount of learning [is] taking place.”	83
5.2.2	Teacher’s Grade Book	86
5.2.3	Recording Learning Using Grades, Marks, and Numbers	89
5.3	Laptops Change the Evidence:
	“There was a big change with the laptops.”	91
5.4	Discussion	92
6.0	Evaluating and Reporting: Accounting for the Learning	97
	Introduction	97
6.1	Standards: Beginning with the End in Mind	97
6.2	Classroom Evaluation	97
6.3	Comprehensive Local Assessment System	98
6.4	District Writing Prompts	99

6.5 State-Wide Assessment – MEA	100
6.6 Discussion	105
7.0 Conclusions: Continuing the Learning	107
Introduction	107
7.1 Conclusions	107
7.2 Recommendations for Implementation	108
7.3 Recommendations for Further Research	108
